NORTH CENTRAL COLLEGE SPECTRUM FOR 1987

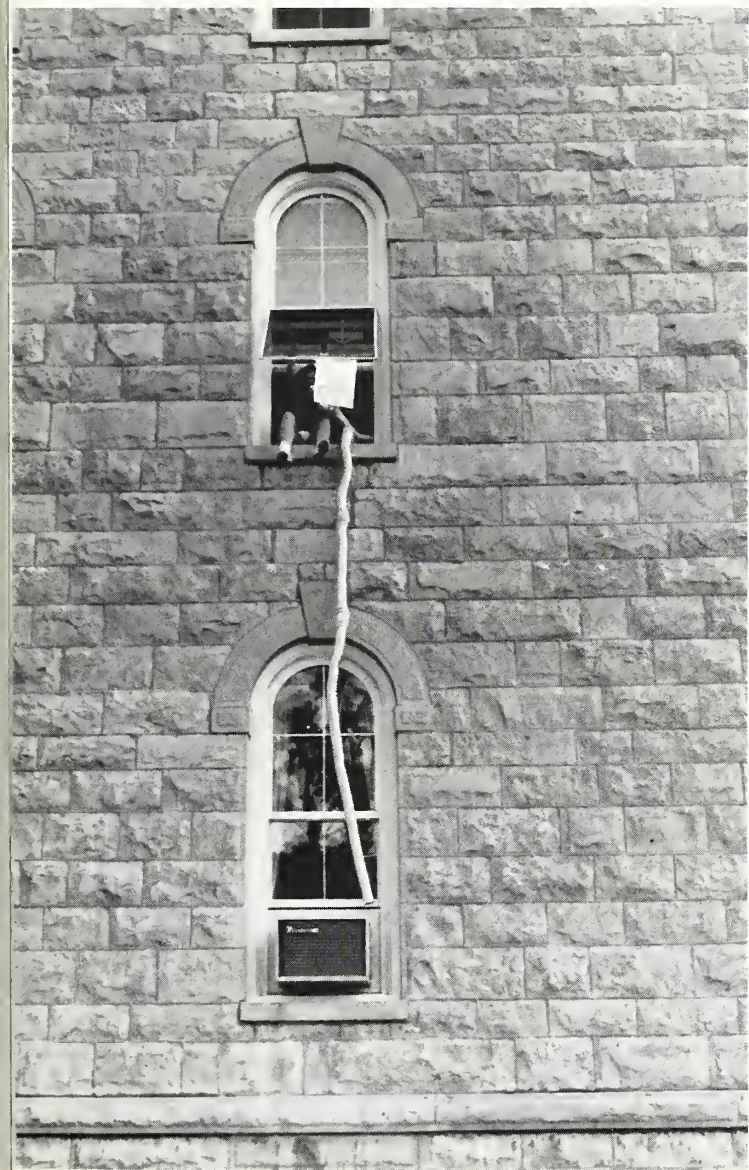

A publication by the students of North Central College

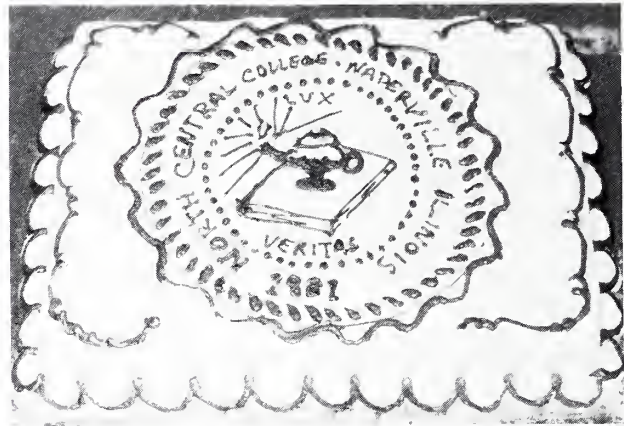

THIS IS NORTH CENTRAL . . .

ACTIVITIES

Jodi gives Brian a tender kiss at the dance.

Pete Hallam boogies with a hula-hoop as he tries to win a banana.

Spirited students provide entertainment at the Homecoming Game.

Becky deals poker at the Casino Night.

HOMECOMING

The Homecoming Court strolls around the track during the half-time show.

With Kaufman decorated for its 125th birthday party, these students enjoy their dinner.

"Celebrate" was the theme of Homecoming '86. The week was full of activities and lots of Cardinal spirit. It started with the Beatles and the movie "Yellow Submarine" followed by subs in the Cardinal Den. Residence Life held a dance Saturday night in the Seager Lounge and on Sunday the Commuter Club sponsored a picnic. Monday night was Convocation to "meet" the Court nominees, and Tuesday was Casino Night in the Cage. Wednesday MSA sponsored movies and popcorn. A birthday party was held in Kaufman on Thursday. Friday was the annual pep rally where this year's Court was announced. It included: Tom Pavich, Casanova; Julee Anderson, Queen; Joy Gustafson, Senior Attendant; Jodi Miller, Junior Attendant; Christina Beavers, Sophomore Attendant; and Eve Ogan, Freshman Attendant. Saturday started with the football game and ended with the Homecoming Dance at Gala West. Homecoming was certainly a CELEBRATION and much fun for all who participated.

Number 12 shows his Cardinal spirit for the game.

HOMECOMING

The cheerleaders perform at the pep rally.

Dan Newkirk tries to pull the red ribbon to the Sophomore side.

Mr. Guthrie calls Casino Night's bingo.

Pam Gerardy Bunny Hop's at the dance.

King for a Day!

This banner lets dad know he is "King for a Day".

Kristin Waehner and her father pose for a picture at Dad's Day.

Ron Selesky and Russ Stratton smile after a Cardinal victory.

Number three takes the football down the field towards another Cardinal win.

DAD'S DAY

The Pom Pon's did a special routine during half-time for their fathers.

Each father received a crown which made him a King.

This year's Dad's Day featured pop as KING. After the reception at President Swing's house, it was time for the annual football game. The fathers enjoyed another Cardinal win. Next it was off to the Merner Fieldhouse to celebrate in a Shakespearian festival.

WINTER Around the World CARNIVAL in 30 days!

Ann, Mike, Dan, and Donna try to win big bucks.

Brett and Stephanie enjoy themselves at the Winter Dance.

Melissa explains to Dave her Newlywed Game strategy.

President Swing serves pizza to students in the new Cardinal Den.

WINTER CARNIVAL

Anita Artensen and Sam Nelson boogie to the music at the Winter Carnival Dance.

Mike and Jodi grin after getting the correct answer.

This year the theme for Winter Carnival was "Around the World in 30 Days". CUAB sponsored such activities as an old American Sock Hop, a Mexican Fiesta, and an Atlantic City Casino Night. The most popular event was the Newlywed Game in which twelve couples competed for the chance to be the best couple on campus. Winners included Mike Bukovsky and Jodi Pajerski; Tom Dominick and Tricia Stepan; and Jerry Breitbarth and Christi Beavers. "A Night In Paris" was held at the Radisson Hotel in Downer's Grove to end Winter Carnival. A fun time was had by all.

Tom Dominick and Tricia Stepan celebrate their Newlywed win.

Joe Berger auctions Casino Night prizes.

Byron Robertson and his date compare the "smiley face" stamps on their hands.

WINTER CARNIVAL

Jerry Breitbarth listens to Christi Beavers explain why she "hates" his army pants.

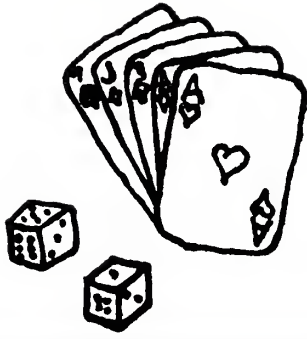

Leslie Mason prepares one of the many Valentine Balloon Bouquets sold.

The guitarist from the "Famous Vacationers" performs at the Mexican Fiesta.

These students try to qualify for a chance in the Blizzard of Bucks booth.

Sibling's Day committee show enthusiastic smiles.

Vicki Janczack deals a hand of cards to future cardsharks.

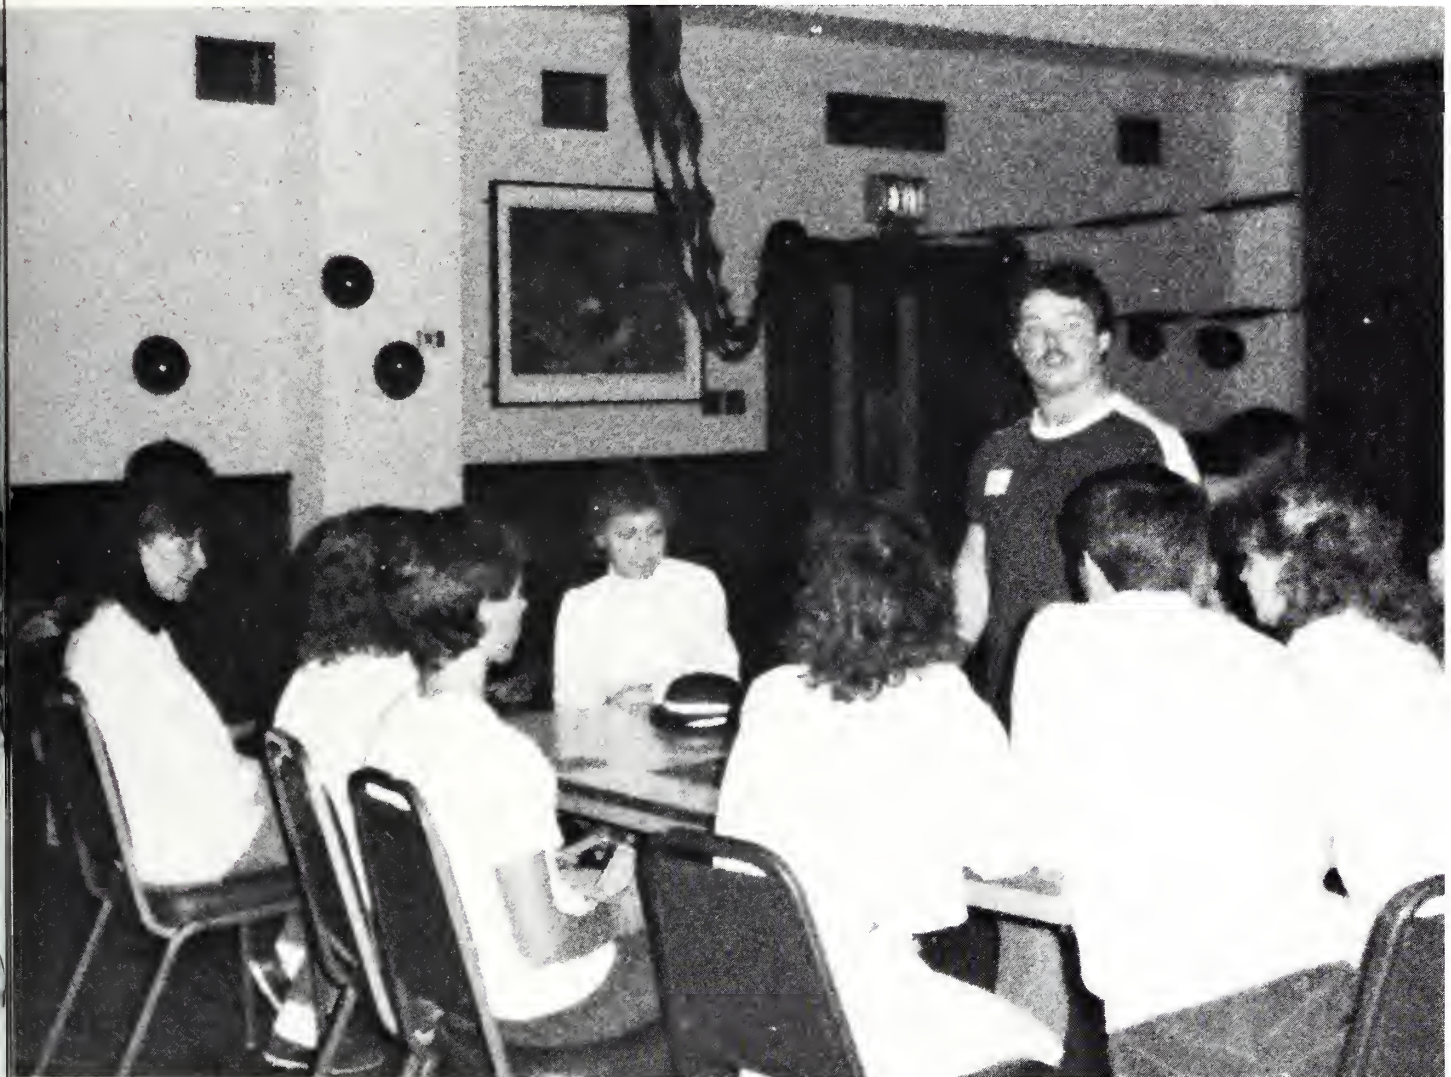

Jim Harrington deals cards to a couple of NCC students and their siblings.

Siblings came in all sizes.

SIBLING'S DAY

Oompa deals out an exciting game of blackjack.

This sibling walks away with his new prize.

During Winter term CUAB sponsored its second annual Sibling's Day. Quite a crowd of younger and older brothers and sisters turned out. Activities included casino games and prizes, pizza dinner, women's basketball, and a sock hop.

THE BOYS FROM SYRACUSE

Mike Pierce and Greg Kontos talk as their "wives" look on.

Directors Michael Ouellette and Ayesha Shariff critique the performance

The cast takes a bow at the conclusion of the musical.

A view of the orchestra as the action unfold on stage.

WINTER MUSICAL

John Horton, as Aegeon, pleads for his life.

Dan Beebe and Lisa Kendzior relax as Eve Ogan fans them.

The North Central College Theatre Guild presented Rodgers' and Hart's "The Boys for Syracuse" as the winter musical this year. It is based on Shakespeare's "The Comedy of Errors" and tells the story of two sets of twins separated at birth. Antipholus of Syracuse starts searching for Antipholus of Ephesus, and the fun begins. The brothers are often mistaken for each other, lending humor to the situation. The work is indeed a comedy and was enjoyed by both those who saw it and those who worked on it. Evening performances were held February 20, 21, 27, and 28. A matinee performance was given on February 22.

The men pose on the deck before hitting the beach.

The tow truck pulls the bus from the ditch.

Jerry and Christi enjoy a night out on the town at Daytona Beach.

Everyone works together to try to push the bus.

SPRING BREAK

The NCC bunch at Daytona Beach.

Leslie Mason enjoys herself at the Hawaiian Luau.

Daytona Beach was the setting for a busload of NCC students during Spring Break '87. After a 25-hour, grueling bus ride, NCC students spent a week hitting the beaches, plantations, Disney World, Epcot Center, and a Hawaiian Luau. Although that was exciting, the biggest thrill came when the bus was forced into a ditch on the way home.

Blue Moon Cafe was a new program at North Central this year. It was presented by CUAB to give the students the atmosphere of a night club. The Cafe was decorated in blue, with candles on the tables and refreshments provided. Scott Jones was the first of many acts to be included in the Blue Moon series. Mr. Jones performed music and comedy for the crowd. Electric Zoot Suit appeared on April 21. This comedy team is known for their skits and parodies. On May 19, Alex Cole, a comedic entertainer, performed with the Graf Brothers, a musical duo. William Coronel was featured at the NY Comedy Laff-Off. The Laff-Off ended the Blue Moon Cafe season that many students enjoyed.

BLUE MOON CAFE

Electric Zoot Suit, the comedy act of Paul Orwick and Walter Coppage, perform in the Cafe.

"Rhythm of the Night"

Jim, Cindy, Mike, and Debbie at the dance.

Michele Salerno and her date are all smiles!

Ron Selesky and Anita Artensen enjoy themselves at the dance.

Glenn and Donna amid the flowers.

SPRING DANCE

Ken Holden and date pose in a picture-perfect setting.

As the school year swung to a close, couples prepared for Spring Dance. It was held this year at the Drury Lane in Oak Brook on May 1st. The atmosphere was festive at the CUAB sponsored event. Dinner and dancing were enjoyed by all.

Sam Nelson provides some dinner-time entertainment.

This couple decides to sit out a dance.

This couple boogies to the beat at Drury Lane in Oak Brook.

Tim King dances with his girlfriend.

ance and his date show off their smooth dancing moves.

Christi and Jerry pose as wedding attendants.

Suzanne Erzinger and Ken Holden pose as a bridal couple.

Mom reads her program to find out what has been planned for her special day.

Tim and his partner perform during the fashion show.

MOM'S DAY

Jerry Breitbarth escorts Kristin Waehner down the aisle.

Co-chairpersons Marsha Trentt, Kathy Sedivy, and Kristin Waehner smile as everything runs smoothly.

The Naperville Sheraton hosted NCC students and their mothers for the annual Mom's Day luncheon and fashion show. This year it was spent aboard a tropical cruise. Fashions were shown for boarding, sightseeing, partywear, the Captain's table, and the wedding at sea. It was a great success as over 400 people attended the gala event.

Kerri Kropusek and Glen Doering welcome everyone aboard.

Doris Warcup models a boarding outfit.

Jill Wilkinson and President Swing are all smiles, in true model fashion.

MOM'S DAY

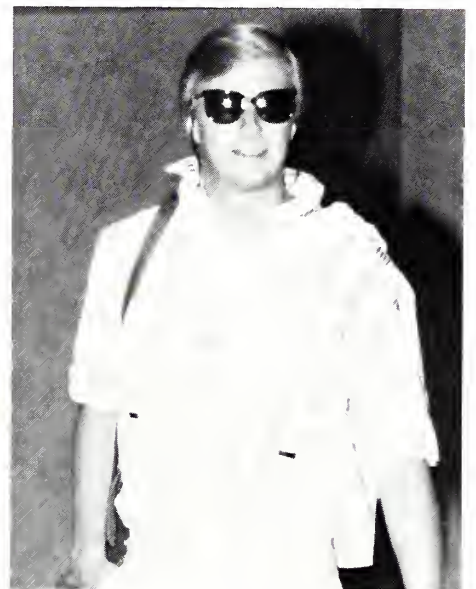

Moms and daughters gather a lei and a Hawaiian orchid before the luncheon.

Pete Hallam escorts Julee Anderson as she models a beautiful bridal gown.

Sandy Greeves is ready to party on the dance floor.

Mike Korinek is all set to go sightseeing when he hits land.

Colin Jones telling NCC students about apartheid.

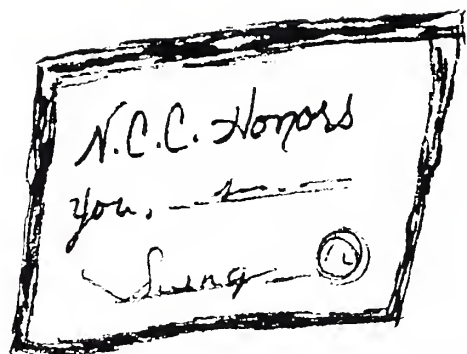

A Hopi Indian poet tells of his heritage.

Dr. Hycel Taylor, the former president of Operation PUSH

The Visiting Lecturers Committee brought in speakers for the campus community to enjoy. A wide range of topics were discussed from the U.S. Constitution to AIDS. Seymour Hersh spoke on the tragedy of the Korean Airlines flight 007. Hycel Taylor encouraged the younger generation to become more involved. Other lecturers were Michael Kammen, Dr. Bruce Dull, Randall Robinson, Ramson Lomatewama, Joji Asahi and Colin Jones.

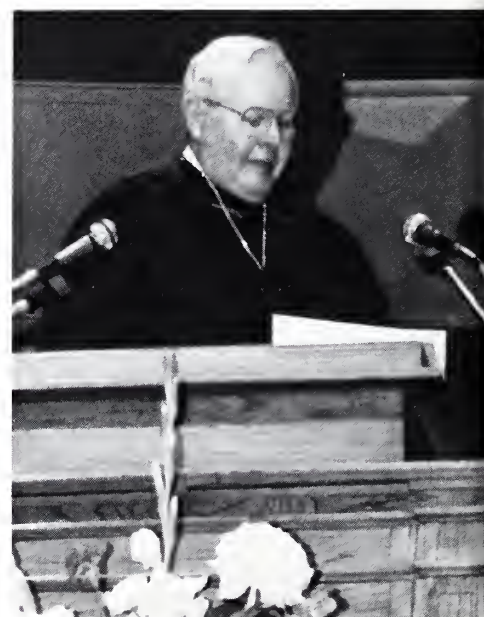

Pete Hallam receives the Outstanding Senior Man award.

Gary Ernst awarded for the development of an entrepreneurship class.

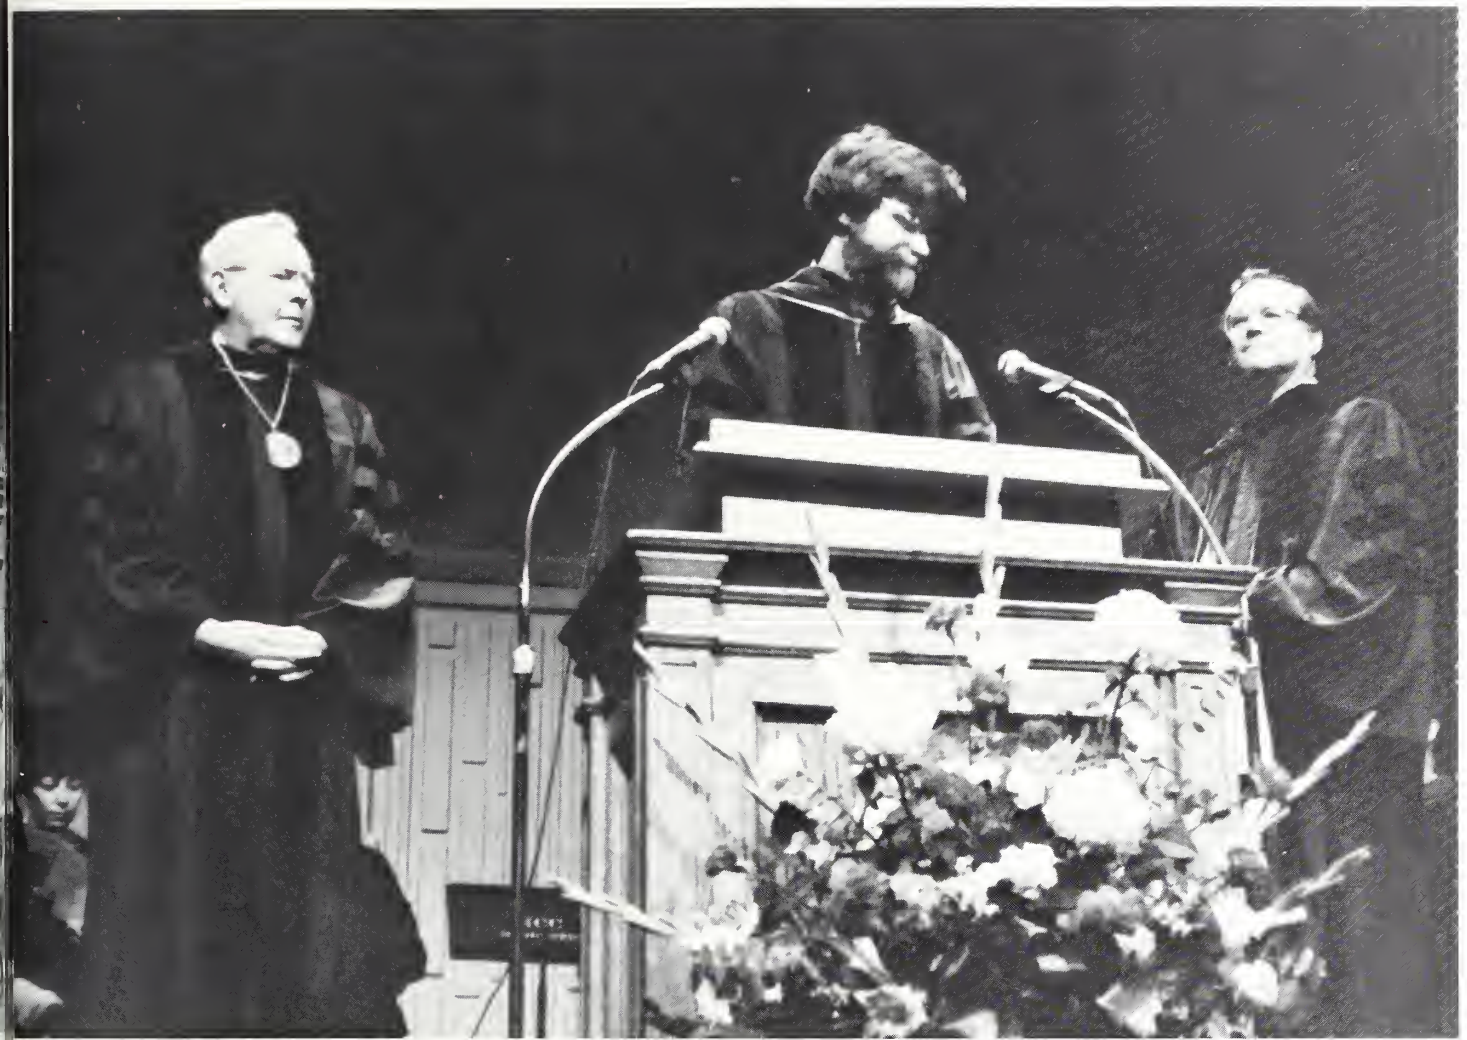

Reverend Isaacs leads the Convocation participants in prayer.

President Swing speaks at the Convocation.

HONORS CONVOCATION

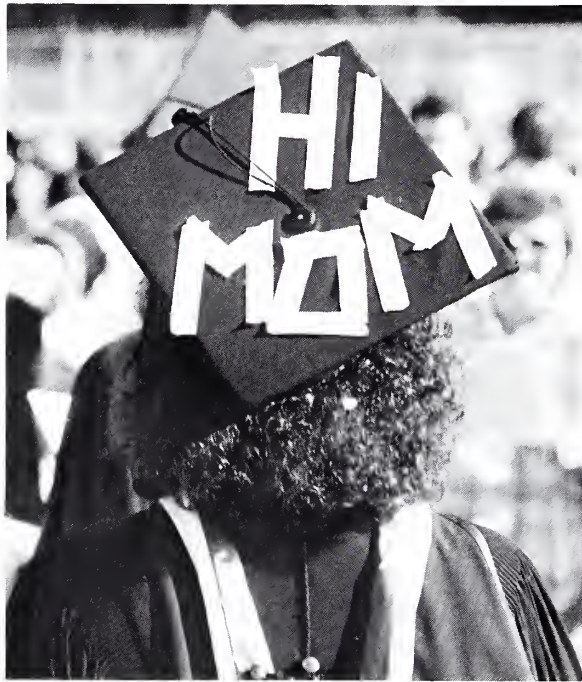

David Blight, receiving the Burlington Northern Trust Faculty Scholarship award.

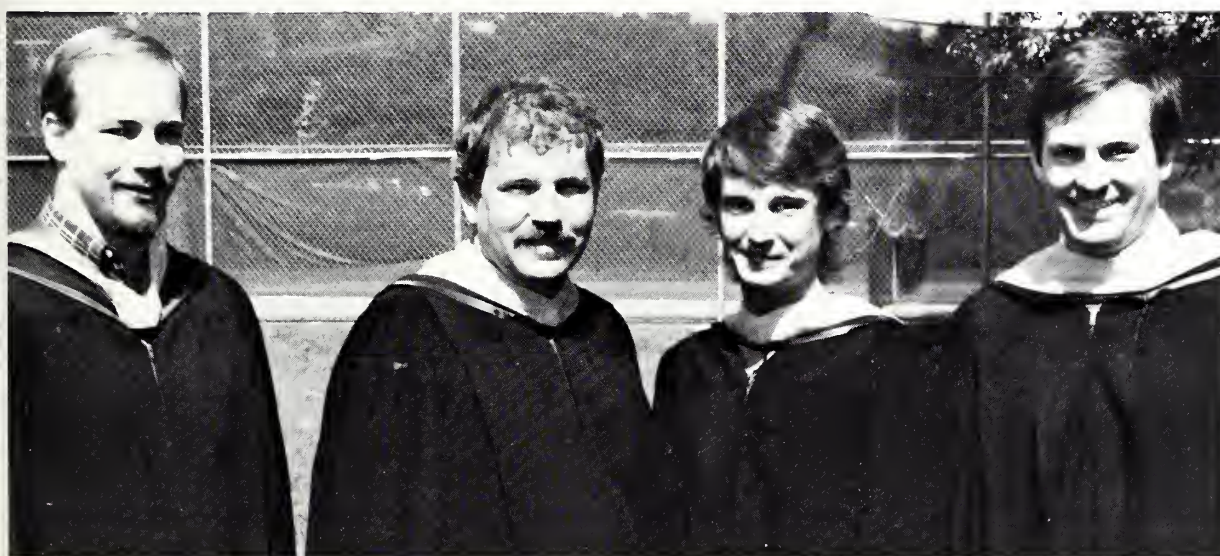

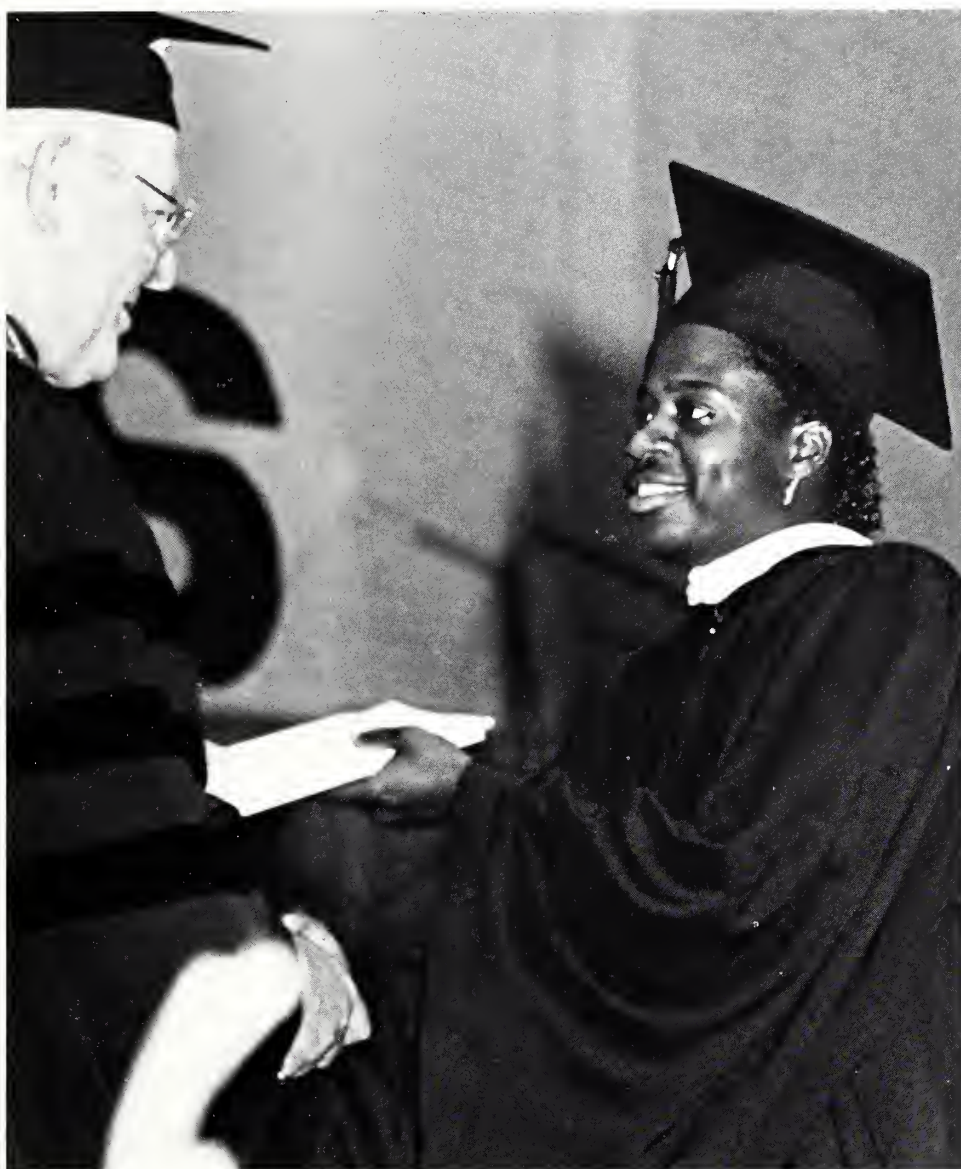

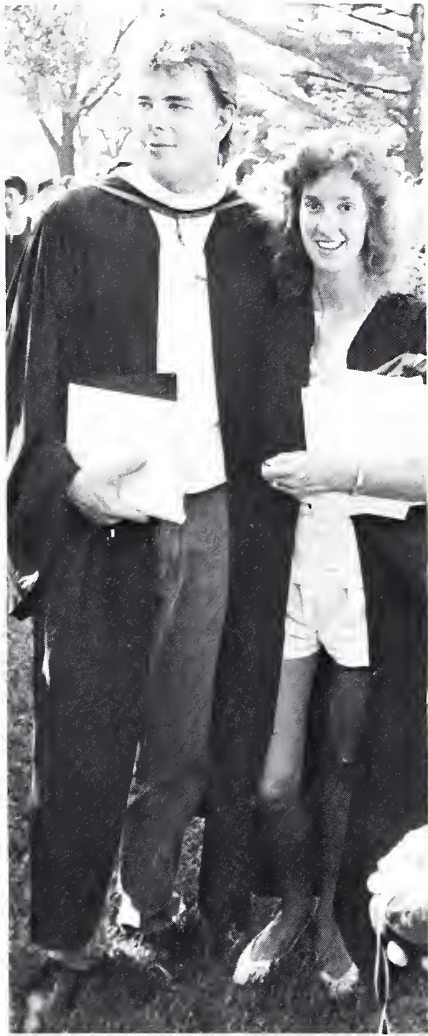

Ayesha Shariff — Senior Women

Honors Convocation is a time at North Central where outstanding students and faculty are recognized. Students were honored in departments and disciplines. Some received awards for exemplary campus service. Who's Who Among Students in America Colleges and Universities nominees were announced. The Outstanding Senior Man and Women were Pete Hallam and Ayesha Shariff. Faculty member, David Blight, received the prestigious Burlington Northern Trust Faculty Scholarship award. Many students and parents came to watch the ceremony. The choir sang in celebration of the awards.

QUOTES

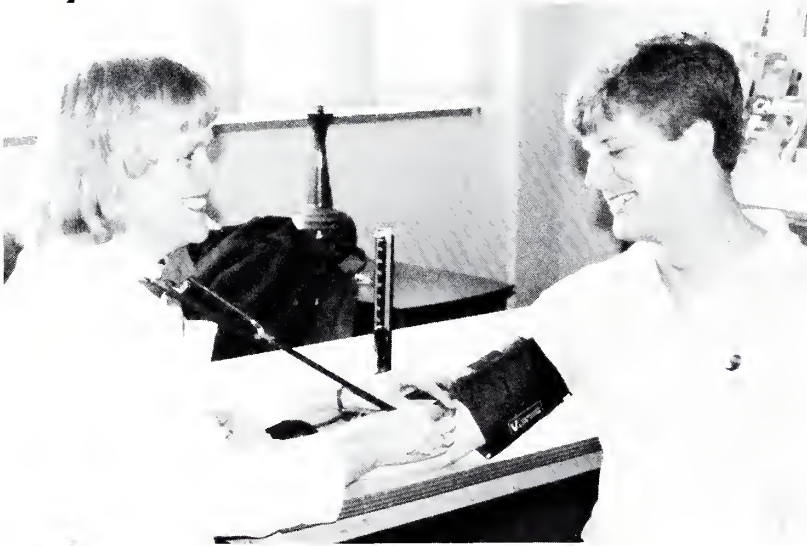

ORGANIZATIONS

AMERICAN MARKETING ASSOCIATION

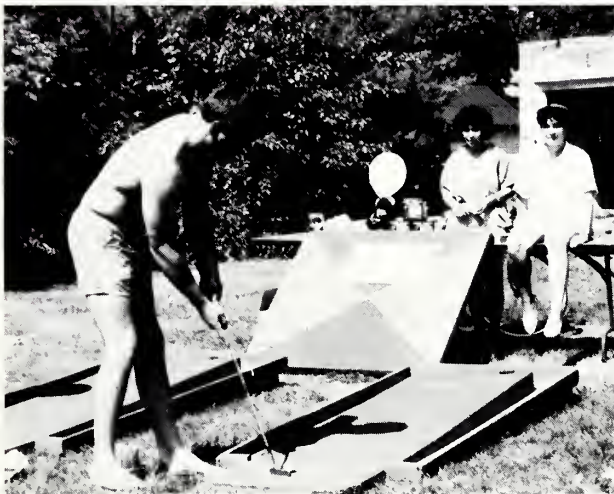

The American Marketing Association (AMA) had a strong membership of 30 people this year. The club was formed to give students a taste of the "real" world. AMA tried to promote relations between students, faculty, and business people. Activities for the year included business and marketing speakers, blood pressure testing and a trip to visit the Jack Daniels offices in Tennessee. Officers were: Kelly Wurtzler, pres.; William Brodne, exec. v.p.; Kevin Martin, v.p. of finance; Rita lang, v.p. of programs; Suzanne Erzinger, v.p. of communications; Sharon Gargano, v.p. of membership; and Cathy Sharp, v.p. of advertising.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

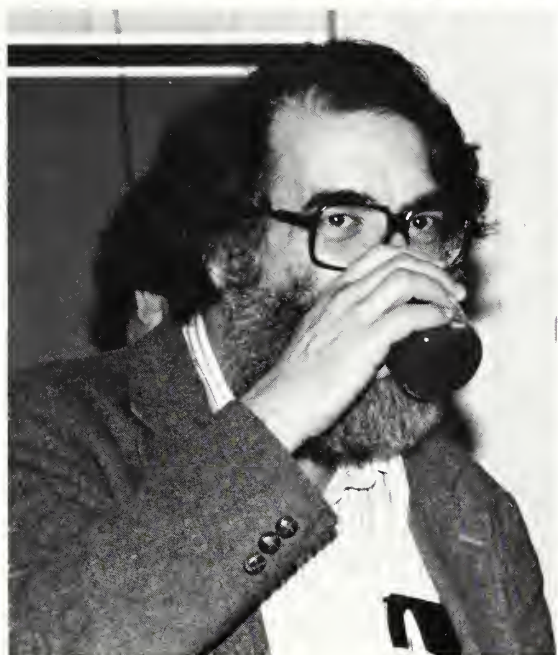

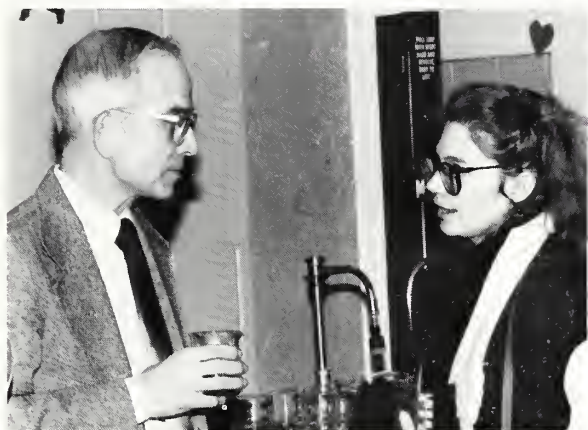

Alpha Psi Omega (APO) is the theatrical fraternity on campus. Membership is obtained through performance in campus plays and musicals. APO members were seen this year in "Hay Fever," the fall play, "The Boys from Syracuse," the winter musical, and "The Trojan Women," the spring play. APO also sponsored the variety show held January 31.

CHEERLEADERS

The cheerleaders helped lead North Central College students through the sport seasons. The cheerleaders could be seen at football games and basketball games cheering on the Cardinals. They helped inspire the crowds with spirit. They also participated in activities such as the SA Carnival during the spring.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

The Chemistry Club's main activity of the year is the annual "Cranberry Tea" around Valentine's Day. Many faculty members and student came to enjoy the tea, cookies, and candy provided by the club for everyone's enjoyment.

CHRONICLE

The Chronicle celebrated its 114th year of publication during this school year. An open house was held for this occasion and also to show off the new offices for the publications. With the addition of a new general manager, many changes were seen in the newspaper this year.

Members of the staff attended an Illinois Press Association Convention and won a directorship for North Central. Editorial staff included: Joan Stohl, editor-in-chief; Brad Todden, business manager; Kathy Maurer, campus editor; Kendra Fuson, News editor; Phil Albano, graphics editor; Diane Balkcom, opinions editor; and Vince Viecei, sports editor.

COLLEGE SCHOLARS

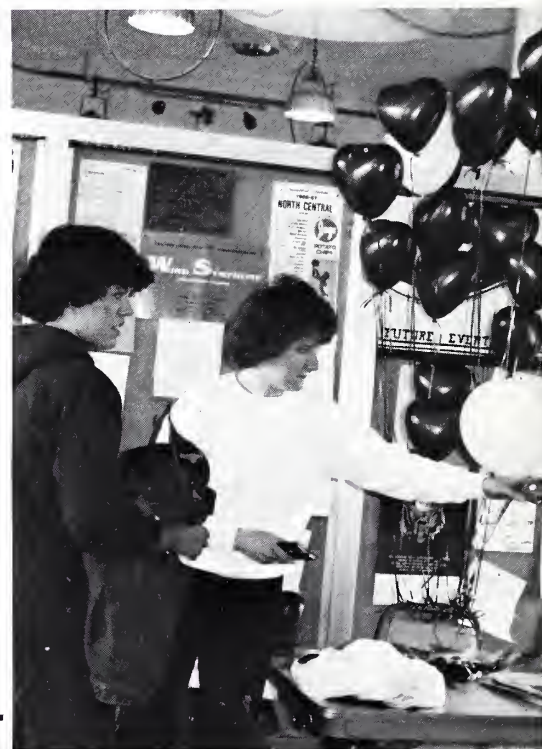

The College Scholars Program is the honors program on campus that is geared to highly-motivated students. The program had approximately 50 participants this year. The year started with a picnic and volleyball game for prospective Freshmen. A reception at the President's house was held for returning College Scholars. On April 15, the annual pizza lunch was held for everyone in the program. Student representatives to the College Scholars Committee were Michele Noel and Ann Randall.

COLLEGE UNION

ACTIVITIES BOARD

The College Union Activities Board (CUAB) is in charge of many of the school activities. The three major dances — Homecoming, Winter Dance, and Spring Dance — are planned by CUAB. However, the members of CUAB, under the direction of this year's president, Kerry Kropusek, also helped with sock hops, campus movies, casino nights, and "Pizza-with-the-Prez" nights. CUAB sponsored such things as balloon sales for Valentines Day, a trip to a Bulls game, a trip to see "The Pump Boys and Dinettes," a St. Patrick's Day party. The Winter Carnival was a month long festival that included a Mexican Fiesta and Hat Dance, the Newlywed Game, the Jesse White Tumblers, and the Winter Dance held at the Radisson Inn. During Spring term, CUAB started the Blue Moon Cafe and held a successful Spring Dance at Drury Lane. Throughout the year, CUAB coordinated specialty days such as Dad's Day and Mom's Day.

COMMUTER CLUB

The Commuter Club is the NCC organization that caters to the needs of the many commuter students. One of the purposes of the club is to foster the relationship between commuters and resident students. The club sponsored such activities as a picnic during Homecoming Week, a Hawaiian Luau Dance, a trip to Second City, and a video dance. Also, the Commuter Club provided some of the refreshments at the Blue Moon Cafes. The most successful activity was the annual trip to Great America on May 17. The officers were: Judith Treece, president; Keith Lang, vice president; Ana Segarra, secretary; and Ann Randall, treasurer.

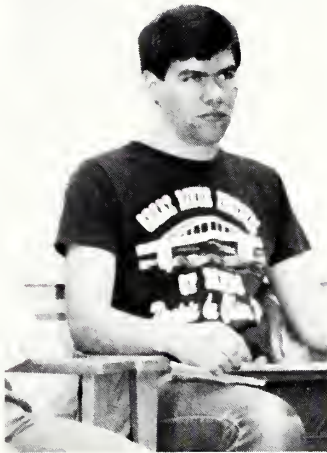

CONCERT CHOIR

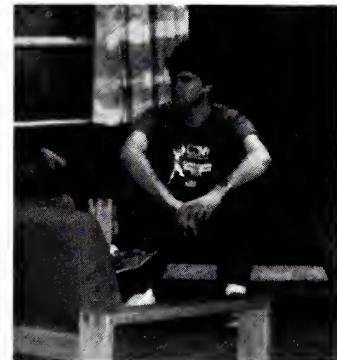

The Concert Choir, composed of students, performed at various concerts and functions over the year. One of these functions was the Honors Convocation in May. The choir also had the chance to perform in Chicago under the direction of Pete Martinez. Choir officers were: Vicki Huffman, president; Bruce Marty, vice president; Debbie Hedeman, secretary; and Chris Rumley, treasurer.

FELLOWSHIP OF CHRISTIAN ATHLETES

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) allows athletes to express themselves through Christian fellowship. FCA members, numbering fifteen plus, met weekly to discuss their organization and share thoughts. Officers were Jon Baker and Jim Rausch.

FORENSICS TEAM

The Forensics Team's purpose is to encourage the development of such skills as reasoning, speaking effectiveness, and research capabilities and to encourage application of classroom experiences during competition. The team strives to develop public poise and self-confidence by attending 10-15 competitive tournaments. Over 100 individual awards were won, as well as 10 team awards at regional and national tournaments. The team won 1st place at the Harper College tournament and 2nd place at the Elgin College, Richland College, and Highland College tournaments.

PI KAPPA DELTA

Pi Kappa Delta is the honorary forensics fraternity on campus. Our chapter has only recently been granted a charter by the national organization. The eleven members unite to encourage interests of intercollegiate speech activities and communication. Officers were: Debbie Hedemann, president; Kary Kaczmariski, vice president/historian; and Jeff Hoefke, secretary/treasurer.

HONOR SOCIETY

The NCC Honor Society held two inductions this year, one in the fall and one in the spring. The Society became an official student association organization this year. An effort was made to have a functioning organization with regular meetings and activities. A newsletter was started and service projects were discussed. The members went to dinner in Chicago and attended a showing of "Sheer Madness." Jennifer Cnota was secretary of the organization.

IMPRESSIONS

The members of the art club, Impressions, produced many pieces of art this year. Artists of the month were picked and honored on campus. The art club sponsored events such as the Spiny Norman concert in October.

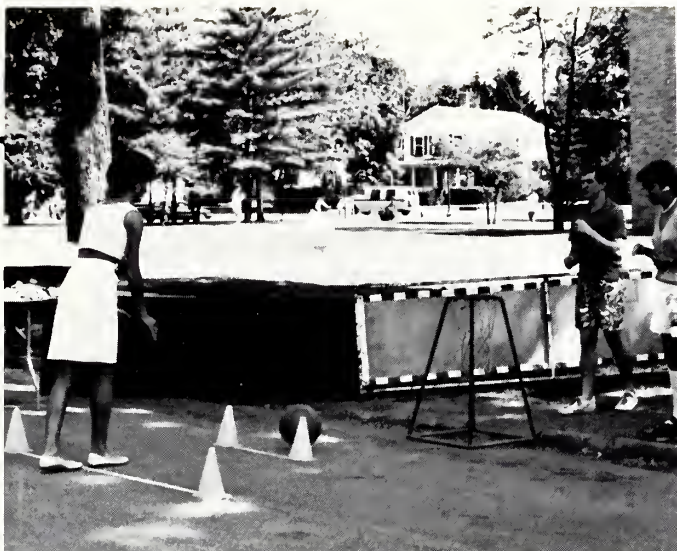

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

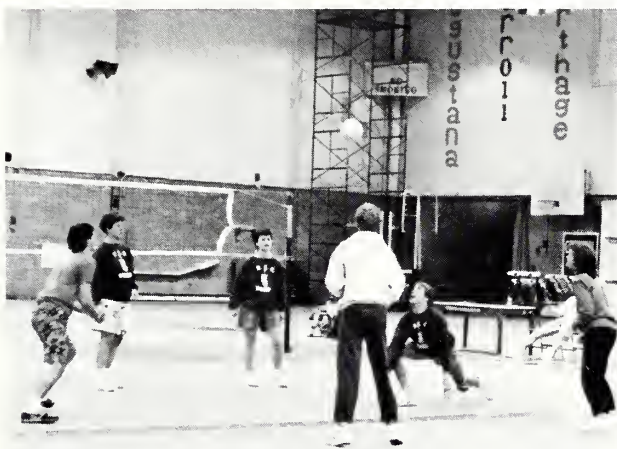

The International Club fosters cross-culture exchange between American and international students and provides a network of support for NCC international students. The club sponsored such activities as a forum, a fair, and a short-bread sale.

The Intramural Board is responsible for coordination and execution of all intramural sport activities including tournaments. Officers were Pete Fippinger, Obrad Kesic, Lisa Wollersheim, Al Zeman, and Scott Homa.

INTRAMURALS

MATH CLUB

The goals of the Math Club are to provide math-orientated students with additional activities outside the classroom and to meet other people interested in math. The year's activities included math conferences and the Math Career Focus. Co-presidents were Kristin Waehner and Doug Manak.

MINORITY STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The Minority Student Association (MSA) familiarizes the campus with minority cultures. MSA helped promote a cultural retreat to acquaint students of different cultures. The organization's big event was their banquet on February 15 in the Activities Center. MSA also sponsored a Soul Food Night and co-sponsored the Winter Dance with CUAB and NTSO, among other activities.

NCC SINGERS

The NCC Singers performed at concerts, harmoniums, the APO Variety Show, and Mom's Day. The group sang mostly popular songs and often featured soloists. Members of the group were: Dan Beebe, Marty Bevington, Eric Brader, Tina Cheever, Donna Fletcher, Debbie Hedeman, Connie Gates, Jackie Gravunder, Gregory Kontos, Paula Lange, Gregg Lloyd, Maria Pearsall, Ed Plys, Chris Rumley, and Aaron Wells.

NEW VISIONS

New Visions is the campus ministry dramatic musical touring company. Members are picked for their musical abilities and their spiritual commitment. The company tours to share their talents. A summer company is also chosen. The summer company's travels extend even farther, sometimes outside the country.

NON TRADITIONAL STUDENT ORGANIZATION

Many activities were sponsored by the Non Traditional Student Organization (NTSO) to facilitate interaction between traditional and non-traditional students. Another purpose of the club is to provide support for the non-traditional students. The club was formally acknowledged as a campus organization with the acceptance of its constitution by Student Association in August of 1986. NTSO's activities were a Halloween Bake Sale, a Professional Women's Forum, quarterly socials, and an end-of-year luncheon. NTSO also co-sponsored the Winter Dance with CUAB and MSA and supported the NCC Women's Organization benefit performance of the winter musical. Officers were: Dianne Erickson, president; Stephanie Brumlik, vice president; Barb Sydnor, treasurer; and Jo Piscotti, Secretary.

PEP BAND

Approximately twelve members of the school campus joined together this year to form the Pep Band. Their purpose is to promote school spirit and enthusiasm by playing at home basketball games. The band tried to increase interest, membership, and quantity of performances this year. They also are trying to build instrumentation. The band had a new director this year, Pete Martinez, who helped Kris Thiemke organize the band.

POLIS

Interest in political science, international relations, Model United Nations, and leadership usually leads to an interest in Polis. The club sponsors activities such as forums and debates, food drives and Model UN. The club also participated in the Student Association Carnival with a dart game, seen at the booth on the right.

POM PON SQUAD

The Pom Pon Squad entertains and promotes school spirit through enthusiasm and participation. The squad performs at home football games and home basketball games. This year fundraisers included a football raffle, Halloween candy bag sales, Sweetest Day flower sales, and the third annual kick-a-thon. Officers were: Marion Baker and Julee Anderson, co-captains; Joy Gustafson, secretary; and Stephanie De-Francesco, treasurer.

SPECTRUM

The Spectrum is the organization that puts together the yearbook. Many hours and hard work are key ingredients to the success of the organization. This year the Spectrum moved to a new office on the fourth floor of Goldspohn. An open house was given for the campus community to view the publications' offices. This year the yearbook pre-sold the 1987 edition at a reduced price to better market the book. The staff tried to achieve a modern look in the layout. The editor-in-chief was Ann Randall.

STUDENT ASSOCIATION

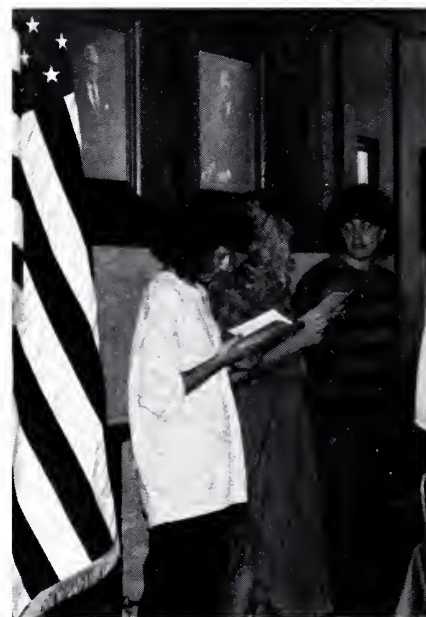

The Student Association is an organization composed of all students on campus. This association has two ruling bodies — the Student Executive Board (SEB) and Organizations Board (Org Board). SEB members, as the student government, monitor student activities and act as representatives to the administration. Org Board, comprised of members from each club, approves student activities.

TRI BETA

Tri Beta's purpose is three-fold: to promote scholarship in the biological sciences; to promote the dissemination of biological knowledge; and to encourage research. This was the 50th year for the club on campus. The activities they planned included a cheese tea, a fossil collecting trip, a picnic, and two inductions. Officers were: Renee G. Murray, president; Jane Zolecki, vice president; Jill Wicknick, secretary; and Christine Reger, treasurer.

UNITED METHODIST STUDENT ORGANIZATION

United Methodist Student Organization — better known as UMSO — is the organization on campus to develop community and fellowship among students. People of all faiths are welcomed and encouraged to attend the functions. Some of the events held throughout the year included a freshman mixer, pizza and ice cream taste-offs, plus the infamous lock-ins at the "Rev's".

A number of members took part in a cultural retreat held in Lake Geneva. The leaders for the year were: Mary Brooks, president; Tim Gossett, vice president; Wendy Ingels, vice president; and Curt Smith, treasurer.

WONC

WONC is the student run FM radio station that broadcasts out of Old Main. Students are involved in all phases of radio work — programming, script writing, directing, news, announcing, and engineering. Activities for the year included a submarine eat-off contest and a basketball game against the Chronicle staff. Station manager was Jim Rausch.

RESIDENCE HALL ASSOCIATION

The Residence Hall Association (RHA) became a recognized Student Association organization this year. The purpose of RHA is to promote, organize, and direct hall activities of the hall councils. RHA represents the resident students while interacting with administrative officers and organizations. RHA is also the appropriate body to which resident students bring concerns related to residence life. The association hosted a booth in the SA Carnival and brought back study breaks for finals. Officers were: Marsha Trentt, president; Jane Lang, vice president; Christi Beavers, secretary; and Terri Doveikis, treasurer. Senate members were: Dianne Grzeszczyk and Cheryl Voliva, Kimmel; Kevin Smith and Kevin Pokorny, Seybert; Frank Griffin and Shawn Welty, Seager/Student Village; Janet Lay and Vicki Janczak, Rall; Darcy Bielema and Terri Doveikis, Geiger; and Jon Burrichter and Van Lewsader, Fort Hill. Advisor was Pat McCoy.

SPORTS

MEN'S CROSS COUNTRY

Under the direction of coach Al Carius, the men's cross country team won their 13th straight College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin championship. At this tourney, Gary Peterson, Joel Bowman, and Brad Todden placed 1-2-3; Scott Parker, Scot Schwarting, Pick Scopp, and Jim Jones placed 5-6-7-11. The team also won the regional title and placed third in the nation. Gary Peterson and Joel Bowman, with top 25 finishes, became All-Americans at Nationals.

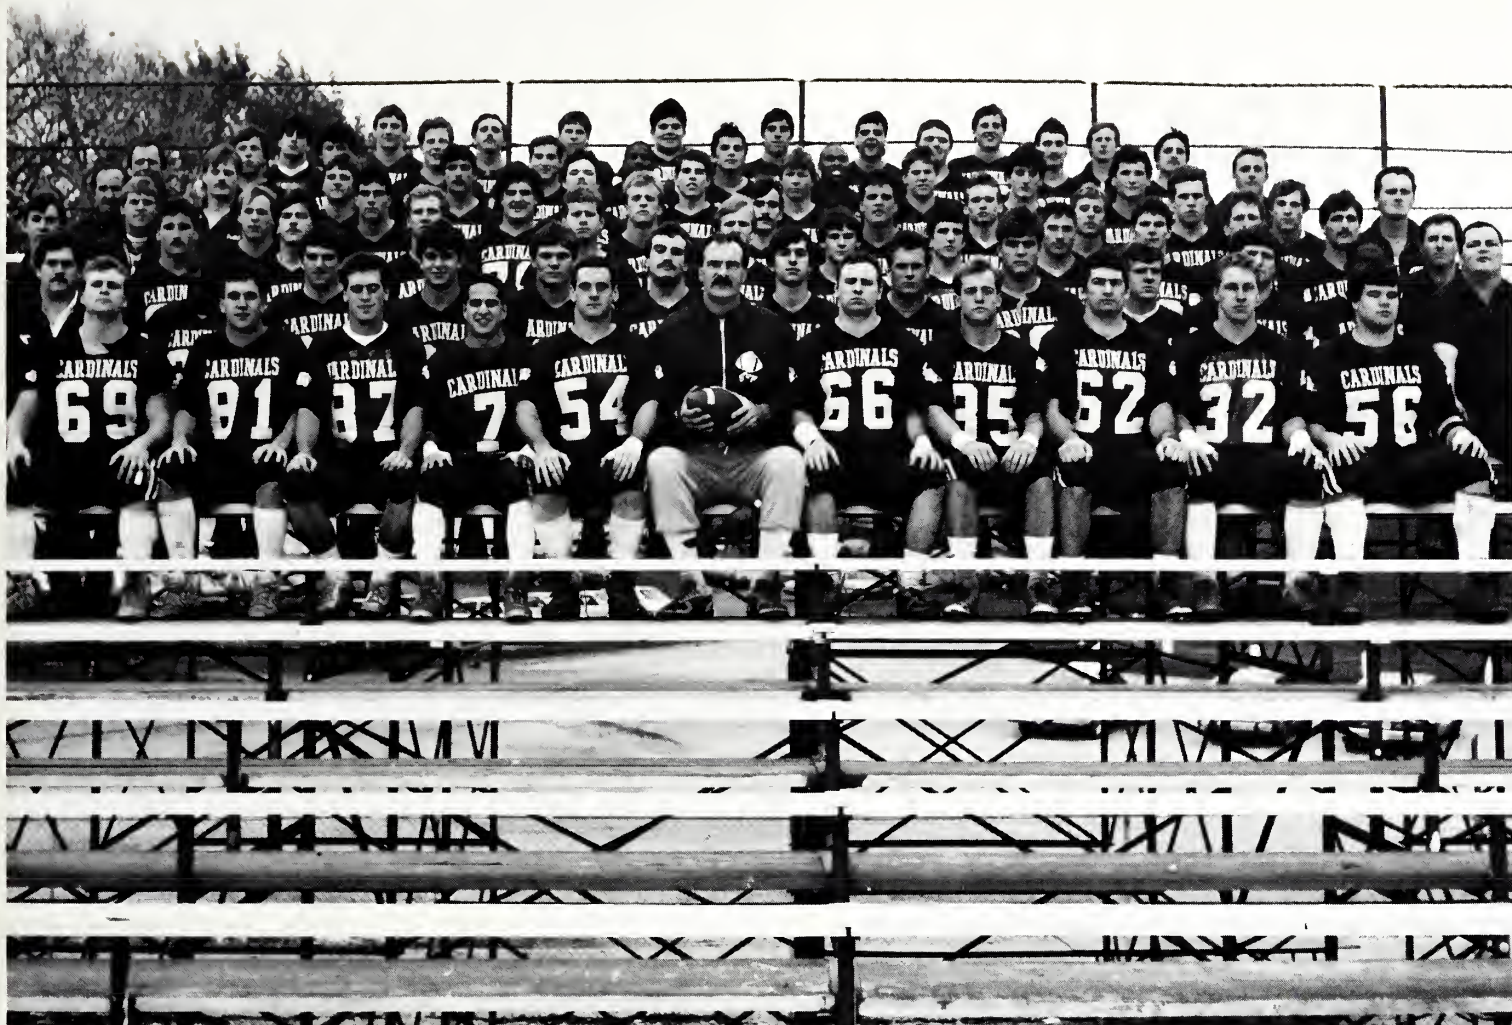

WOMEN'S CROSS COUNTRY

The women's cross country team captured 2nd place at the CCIW tournament. The team had a new coach this year in Wendy Sood. At the CCIW tournament, Margo Walsh finished first, Lisa Walsh finished ninth, and Beth Clukey finished tenth. Also, Laura Hardin was 24th, and Costella Green was 29th. Moving on to the regional tournament held November 15, in Davenport, Iowa, the team captured sixth place. At this event, Margo Walsh placed second. She went on to the National championships, capturing 11th place and an All-American award.

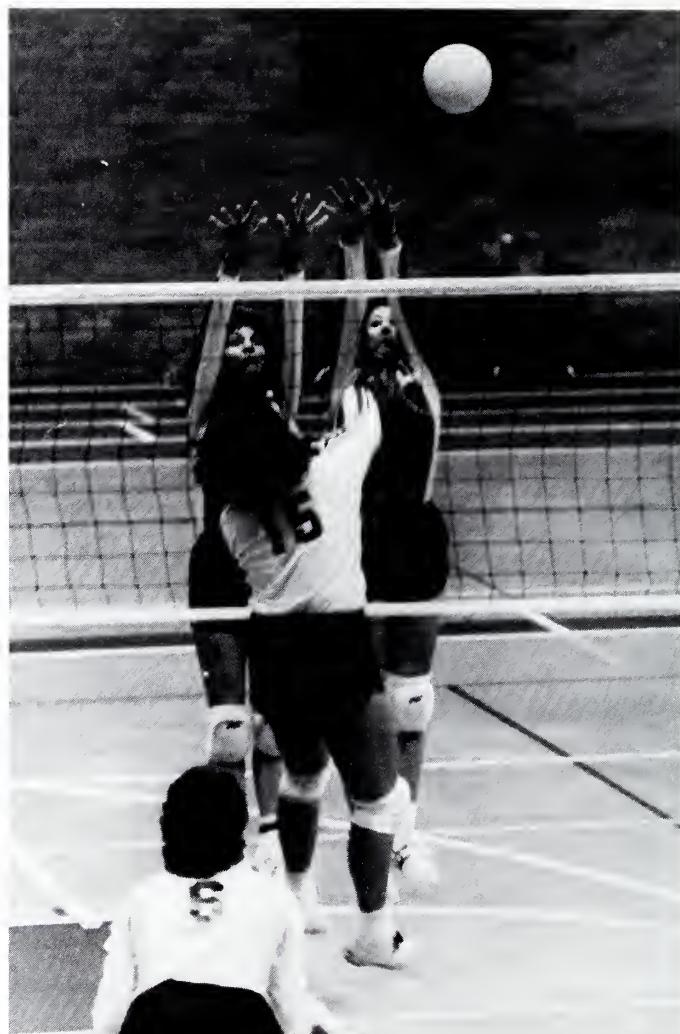

FOOTBALL

Pre-season started August 25th, to gear up for the opening game against North Park. Paul Conner's team won this first game as he started his second year as football coach. In their first winning season since 1982, the Homecoming game against Illinois Wesleyan made CCIW history. It was the highest tied-score game ever, 34-34. The season ended with NCC tied for fourth in the CCIW, a 4-3-1 CCIW record. They were 5-3-1 overall. Co-captains were seniors Pat Hinton and Randy Cohen. Others who played in their last season were: Dan Brown, Barry Coultas, Steve Fielen, Dennis Piron, Alfredo Ruiz, Ron Selesky, Russ Stratton, and Rich Thorgesen.

VOLLEYBALL

The first CCIW year for the volleyball team saw North Central take sixth place in the standings for the regular season, with a 4-4 conference record. Coach Marcy Moely's starters included Kelley Neal, Lynnea Loudenebeck, Suzie Boehm, Tammy Datson, Ann Hooper, and Michelle Johnson. NCC had 4 of the 6 servers topping the statistics in the conference. The CCIW tournament was held in Decatur, where the team tied for 5th place. Their overall season record was 20-24. Serving on the CCIW all-star second team was freshmen Suzie Boehm.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

The women's tennis team, coached by Beverly Thornburg, came out of the CCIW tournament in Rock Island in last place. One reason for this was the injured ankle of No. 1 singles player, Karin Toth, who went into the tournament with a 9-1 record. Ann Schrader did win the No. 6 singles match at this tournament. Team members included: Toth, Schrader, Darcy Bielema, Camden Bobek, Ellen Clore, Kim Kruse, and Sue Simanitis.

SOCCER

In his third year as coach, Dan Palmer brought the soccer team to their best start since 1981. During the year, the team made 50 goals, an improvement over last year's 23 goals. Stan Mietus led the team with 12 goals and 5 assists, giving him 29 points. Second was Mike Driscoll with 9 goals and 7 assists for 25 points. The last home game against Augustana was dedicated to the seniors. Those seniors were Driscoll, Gus Liatus, Al Romero, and Dan States. The team's record was 11-7-1.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

This year's women's basketball team was young, having eight freshman on the team. Co-captains were Julie Baker and Jonnie Bass. The team spent 2 weeks of the year in Hawaii, playing five games. Coach Rose Price, in her second year, brought her team to 7-9 CCIW record, 12-13 overall. Jonnie Bass, Jeannie Jordan, and Sarah Shillington finished their careers with 464 points, 464 points, and 818 points, respectively. Shillington was among the leaders in assists and steals. The CCIW all-star team saw forward Rosalind Williams on first team and point-guard Shillington on third team.

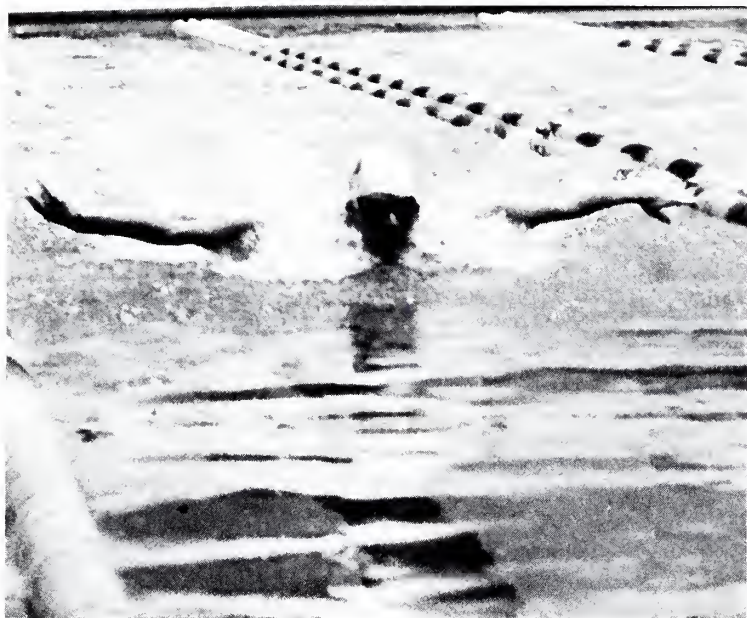

MEN'S BASKETBALL

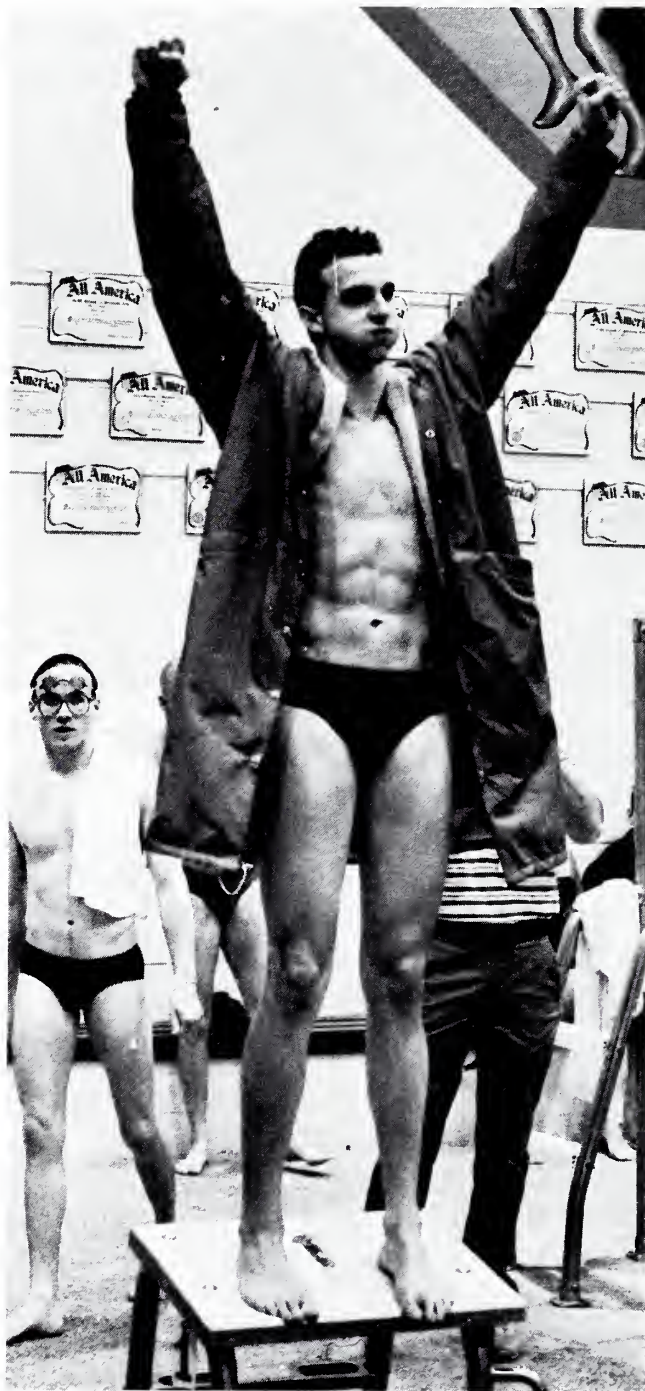

The season began December 2, with Tom Pavich and Mike Bohannon as co-captains. It was a great start for coach Bill Warden's team. It was January 31 before the team lost its first CCIW game. The team was ahead or tied for first place in the CCIW until they lost to Wheaton College in mid-February. The team was hoping for their 2nd CCIW title in three years, but they tied for second place after losing to North Park. Their records were 12-4 in the CCIW and 16-10 overall. Center Mike Bohannon was named to the CCIW all-star first team, and forward Tom Pavich was picked for the third team. Bohannon also was chosen for the second team of the regional all-star squad.

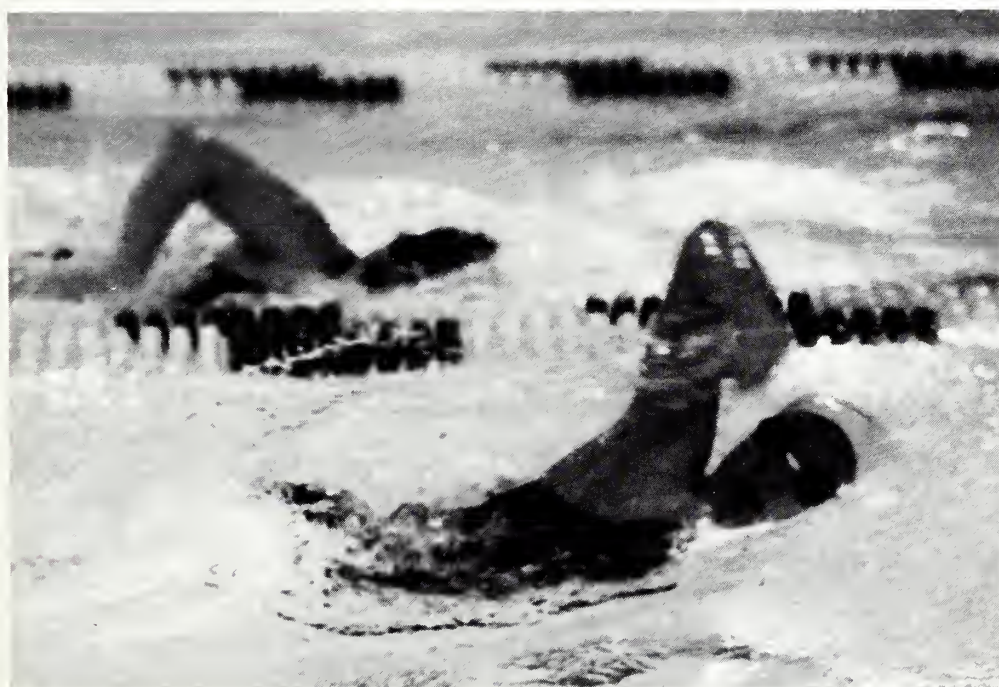

MEN'S SWIMMING

Thirteen year coach, Dennis Ryan, led his team to a second place finish in the North Central Swim Invitational and a third place in the 14th Annual Intercollegiate meet. The CCIW tournament was held at Wheaton College, February 26-28, where NCC placed 3rd. P.J. Rathman was first in the 50 and 100 freestyles and third in the 200 freestyle. His 100 freestyle time was a new CCIW record. Craig Helwig came in 2nd in the 100 butterfly. Third place in the 100 breaststroke went to Kevin Reed. Craig Wood received third place in the 100 backstroke. Jeff Putnam was fourth in both the 100 and 200 backstroke. The 400 freestyle relay team made up of Rathman, G. Wood, Helwig, and Ray Van Hootegem recorded a new CCIW open record. A third place finish was obtained by the 400 medley team of Rathman, Van Hootegem, Reed, and Helwig. The NCAA national tournament was held in Canton, Ohio, March 19-21. Qualifiers included: Grant Wood, 200 and 500 freestyle; Reed, 100 breaststroke; Helwig and Van Hootegem, 100 butterfly; Rathman, 100 and 200 freestyle; and all three relay teams. The team placed 22nd at nationals, with G. Wood 11th in the 200 freestyle and 13th in the 500 freestyle, earning him All-American honors. The 400 and 800 freestyle relay teams, made up of Helwig, Van Hootegem, Rathman, and G. Wood, placed 10th and 12th respectively. These finishes made them All-Americans. The 400 medley team was 17th.

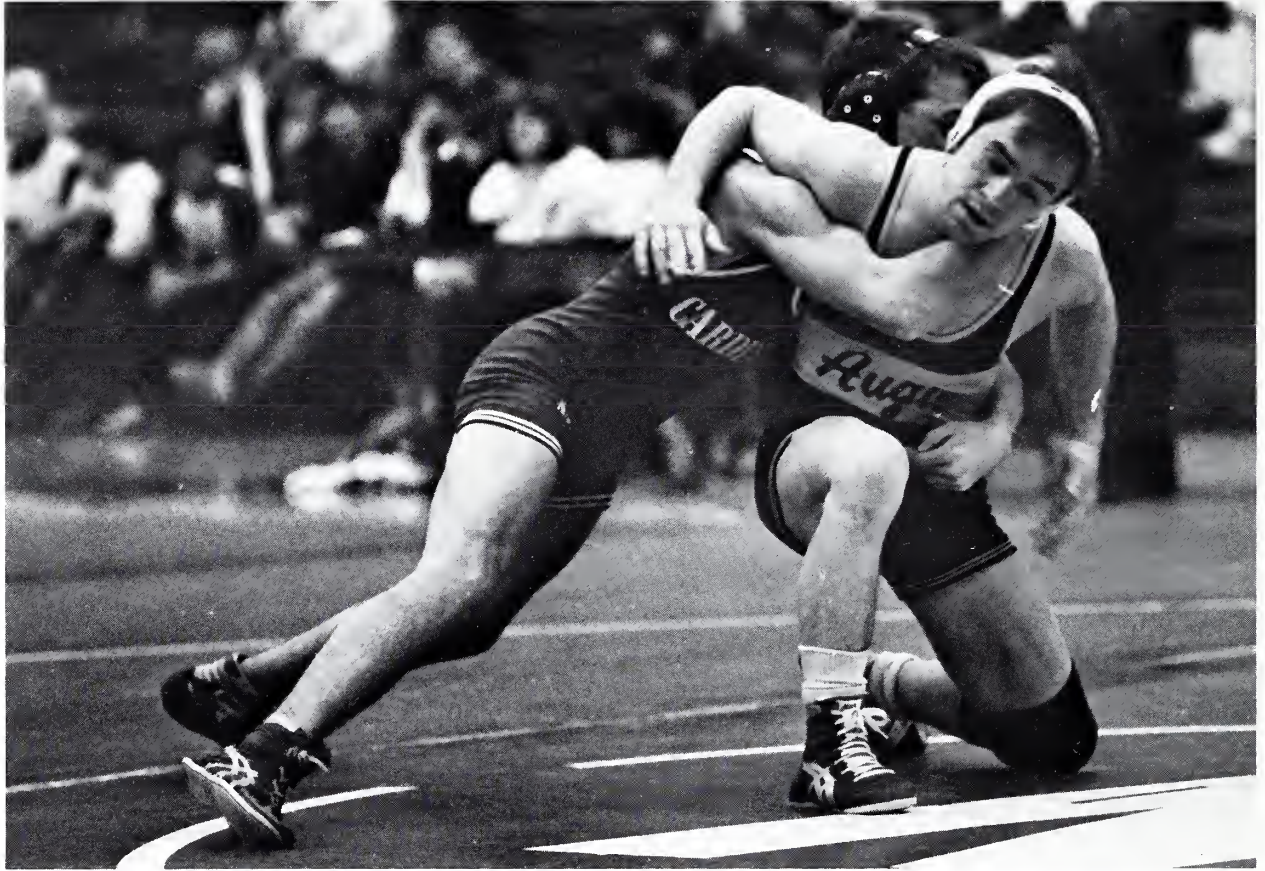

WOMEN'S SWIMMING

Placing fourth in the CCIW Swimming and Diving championships, the women's swimming team seemed to respond to the rigorous training they experienced in Florida with coach Dennis Ryan. At this CCIW tournament, Laura Williamson won the 200 individual medley, placed third in the 100 freestyle, and placed fifth in the 100 butterfly. The 200 freestyle relay team consisting of Williamson, Kim Wilk, Maura Billish, and Cheryl Voliva earned third place. Williamson was a qualifier to the NCAA Division III nationals in the 200 individual relay, the 100 freestyle and the 100 butterfly. She placed 20th in the medley and 23rd in both the 100 freestyle and the 100 butterfly.

WRESTLING

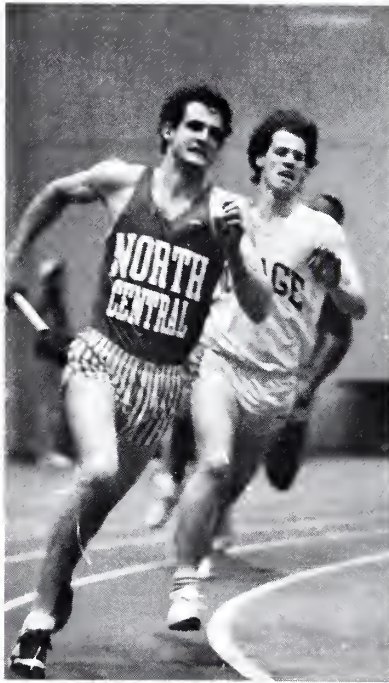

The wrestling team gained a new coach this year. Dan Franch was the main scorer for the team all season. He went into the CCIW tournament at Carroll College in Wisconsin with the only winning record (11-6-1). He was also named the CCIW's Most Outstanding Wrestler for February. At the CCIW tourney on February 21, the team scored 15.5 points and finished in 5th place in the CCIW. This was due to Franch's win of the 118 pound title and Kevin O'Brien's scoring with a pin. Other members of the team at the CCIW tournament were: Jerry Breitbarth, 126 lbs.; John Faragoi, 150 lbs.; Dave Abrams, 167 lbs.; and Jerry Evitts, 177 lbs. Franch went on to the NCAA Division III championships in New York, winning 5th place. He earned All-American honors and brought NCC to 29th in the nation.

WOMEN'S TRACK

The track and field indoor season came first, qualifying seven girls for nationals. The NCAA Division III finals, which were seen at the University of Chicago, March 13-14, gave Ophelia Johnson a second place and All-American status in the 55 hurdles. Margo Welsh earned an All-American also, placing 6th in the 1500. The 4x400 relay team of Megan Allen, Rhonda Bayles, Suzie Boehm, and Holly Swalve obtained All-American with a 6th place finish. Allen came in eighth in the 400 and Tina Buonauro placed seventh in the high jump. The outdoor season saw NCC become the first-ever CCIW women's track champions. Walsh was victorious in the 5000 and 10,000. Winners also included the 4x100 relay team, Mona Martin with the javelin, Johnson in the 100 and 200 hurdles, Allen in the 400, and the 4x400 team of Bayles, Rhea Reed, Wilk and Allen. Five women went on to nationals.

MEN'S TRACK

Qualifying for the indoor championship in NCAA Division III were Brian Lamb in the 55 hurdles, Dan Baker in the 880, 4x400 relay team of Lamb, Joe Plutz, Dennis Piron and Baker, and Mark Bachtold as a high jump alternate. Due to Baker breaking his ankle at nationals, the 4x400 relay team was unable to compete. Lamb placed 6th in the 55 hurdles, giving him All-American status. The outdoor season brought with it the team's third-straight CCIW title. And the CCIW tourney, winners were: Jim Jones, 1500 and 5000; Bill Toland, pole vault; Dennis Piron, 400; Dana Epperson, 400 hurdles; Jim Van Hootegem, Plutz, Epperson, Piron, 4x400 relay team; and Bachtold, high jump. Eleven men continued on to nationals.

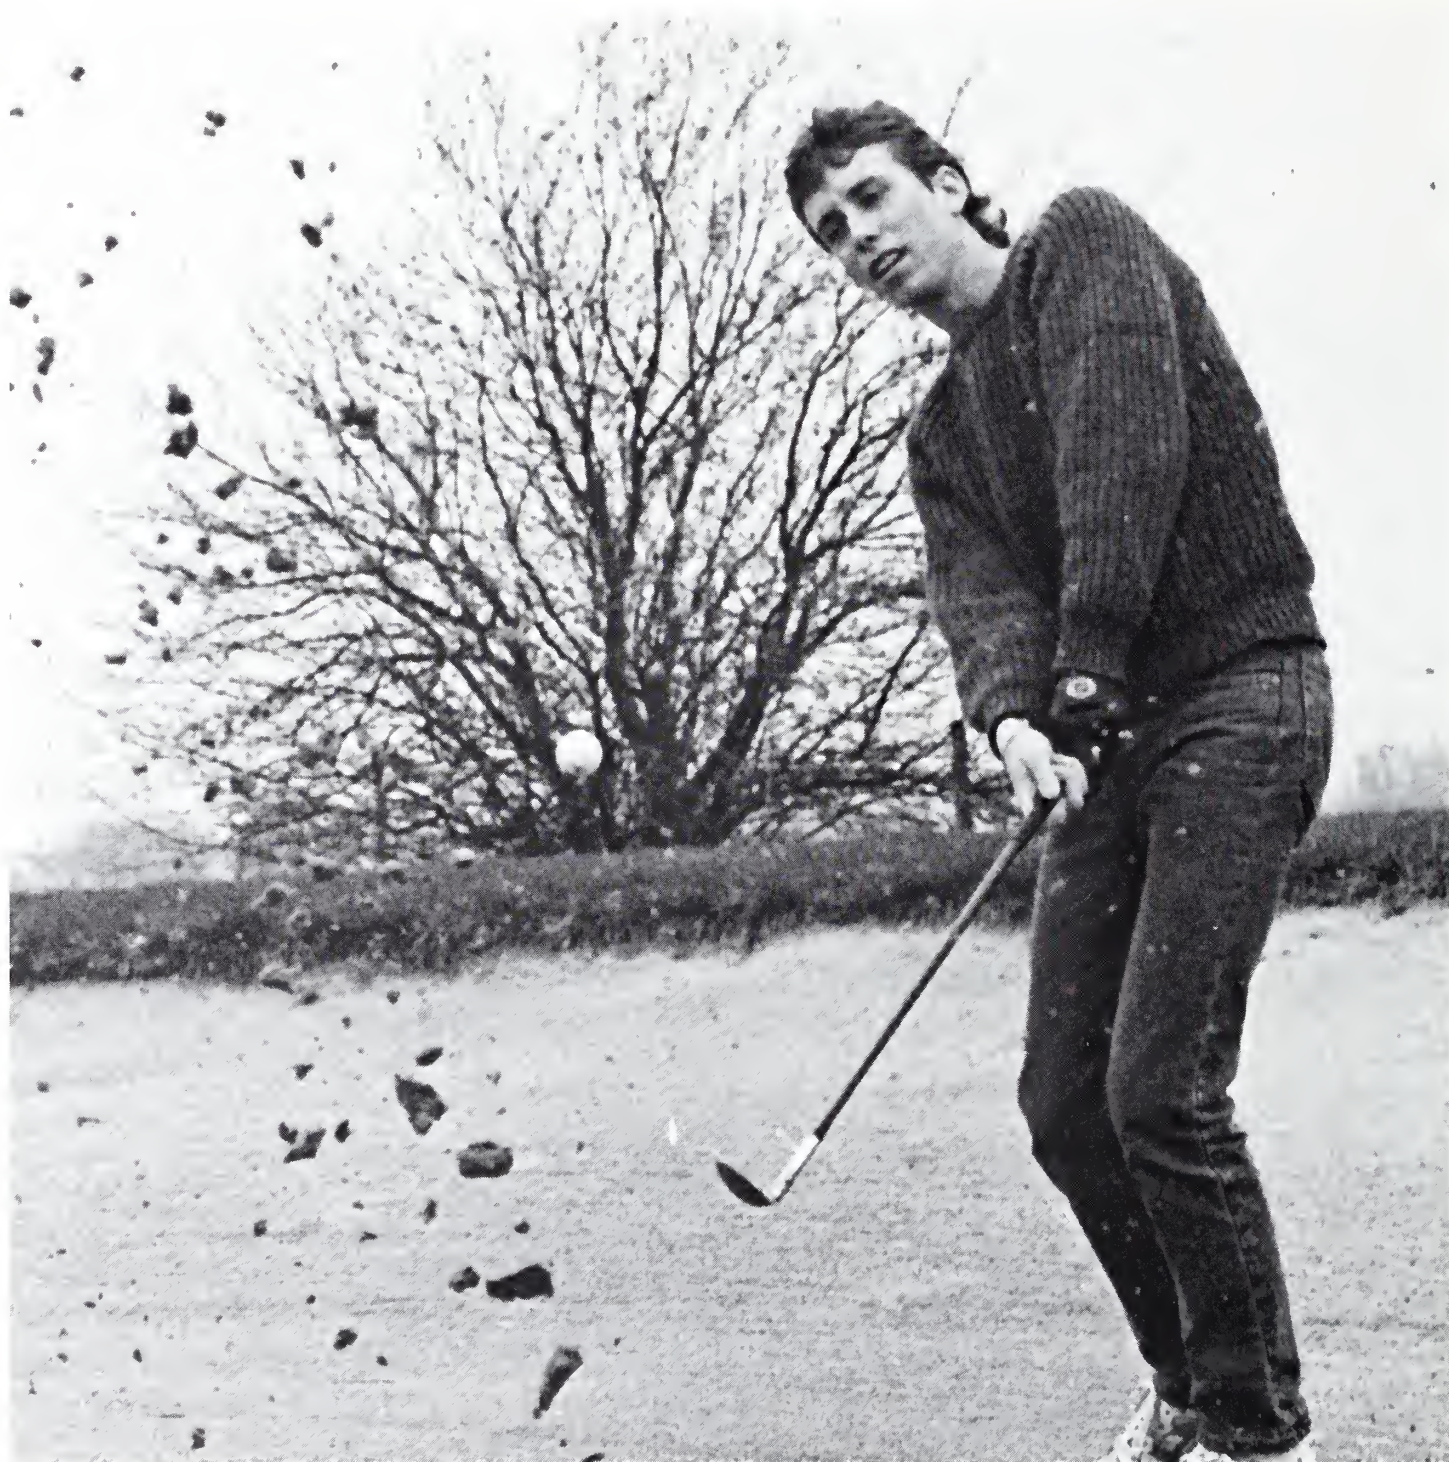

1987 TRACK NATIONALS

NCC was host for the 1987 NCAA Division III Men's and Women's Outdoor Track and Field Championship. Qualifiers were: Megan Allen; Dan Baker; Pete Bartelson; Marc Browning; Dana Epperson; Kurt Hassenstein; Dawn Johnson; Ophelia Johnson; Jim Jones; Terrence Jordan; Brian Lamb; Dennis Piron; Joe Plutz; Holly Swalve; Jim Van Hooitegem; and Margo Walsh. The women's team placed 20th in the nation. The men were 27th. O. Johnson received All-American honors with a 4th place in 100 hurdles. The relay teams did very well, and Walsh, Jones, and Hassenstein placed high in their events.

GOLF

The golf team was coached by Dennis Ryan. They entered the CCIW championships hoping for their first title, but it was not to be. In Pontiac, Illinois, Millikin beat North Central, 621-635 to give NCC golfers second at the CCIW tournament. Jeff Samuels had the top round for the Cardinals with 159 at the tourney, giving him eighth place overall. Other low scores were Tim Lander's 161, Gary Compton's 164, and Hank Mazurek's 164. John Gross found himself in a tie for medalist honors at the championships. Gross had the club's best season average with 80.45. Samuel's average was 80.54.

MEN'S TENNIS

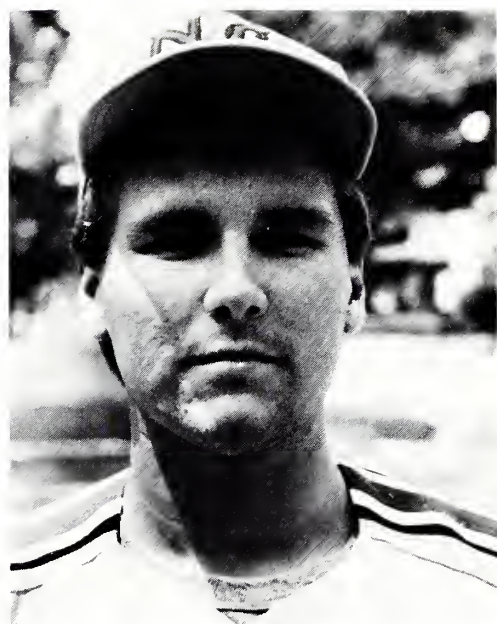

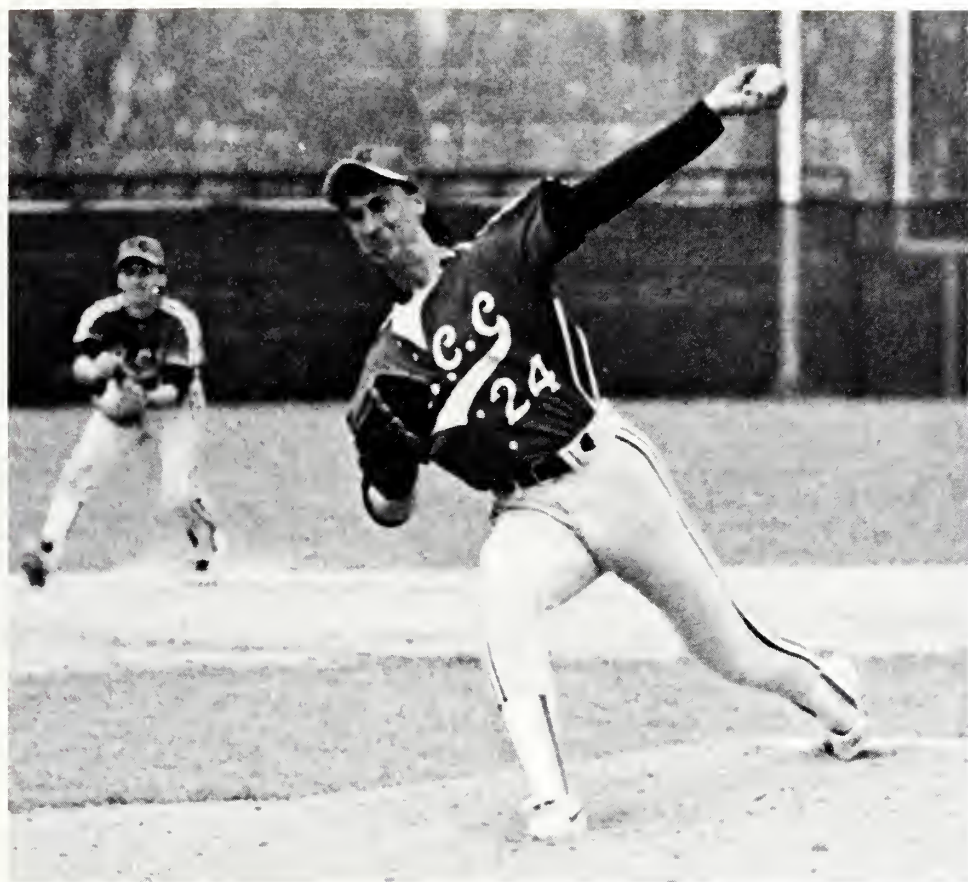

This year the improved men's tennis team went to the CCIW tournament with a 7-4 dual meet record. First-year coach Matt Cotter had a young team go into the championships-four freshmen, one sophomore, and one junior. The line-up was (No.1-No.6 singles): Jeff Peistrup, Jerry Duttlinger, Jeff Hequembourg, Jeff Hilmer, Mark Baskiewicz, and Scot Kalchbrenner. The team finished 7th place at the CCIW tournament.

BASEBALL

Coach Tom Purcell led his baseball team to their best finish ever. After winning the north division with a 13-2 record, the team went on to the CCIW tournament. The team lost their bid at a fourth straight conference title, but they were again invited to the NCAA Division III Midwest Regional tournament. Regionals saw champions in North Central. Onward the team went to the NCAA Division III World Series in Marietta, Ohio. The team ended their season with an impressive 5th place finish in the nation. The team's final record was 31-13. Matt Richards was named the CCIW's Most Valuable Player, as well as picked for the all-midwest regional first team. The MVP of the regional tourney was Craig Stephan who, along with Brian Zimmerman, was named to the all-midwest regional second team. Mike Budler was on the College Division Academic All-American first team. The CCIW north division all-star team included: Richards, Ritter, Stefan, Zimmerman, Dan Brown, and Mark Palusis.

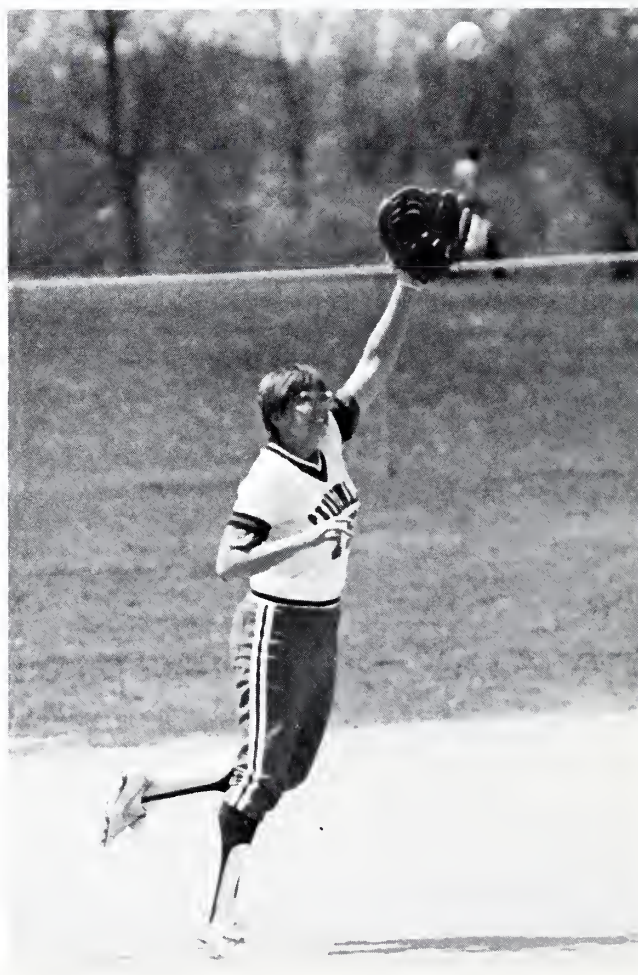

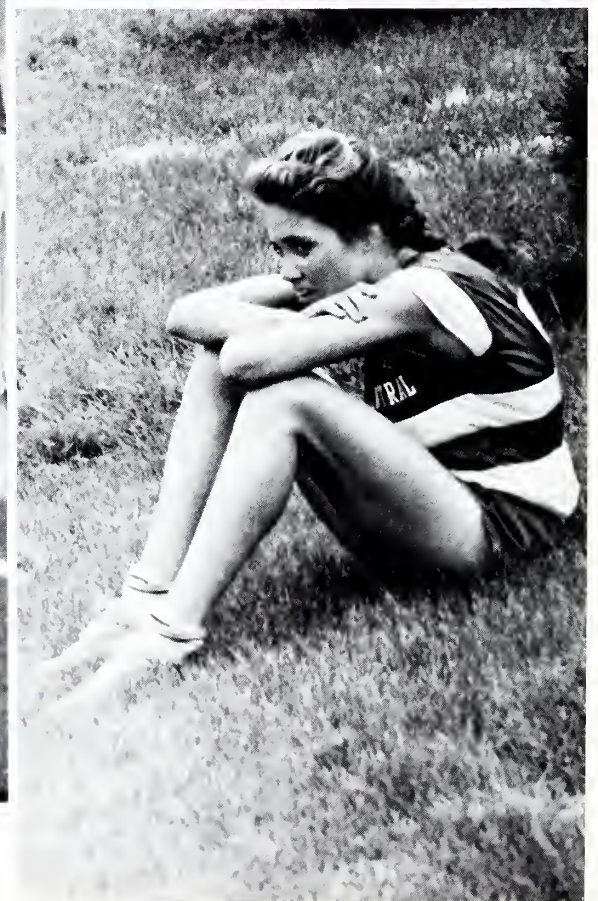

SOFTBALL

The softball team won the CCIW north division with a 10-2 record. This enabled them to compete in the first CCIW softball tournament. They placed third in the tournament by defeating Illinois Wesleyan. Honors bestowed on NCC softball players included the first-team picks of Carol Jarosky (pitcher), Deena Rangel (outfielder/first baseman), and Sarah Shillington (shortstop) to the 1987 CCIW north division all-star team. Honorable mentions to this squad were Lynnea Loudenberg (first baseman/pitcher) and Nancy Weinhandl (pitcher). The overall record for the season was 17-9.

SENIORS

SENIORS

We travelled a long distance together — through the first day of college when we didn't know what to expect to the last day when, as graduates, we threw our caps to the ceiling as a symbol of our accomplishment.

The journey to that last day was rough, but somehow we survived. We made it to a point in our lives where the world is open for us to find a direction that may pull us far away from NCC. However, in our hearts NCC will remain that "special kind of place" that everyone told us it was.

I hope that you, the students and staff of North Central, will feel the magic of the 1986-87 school year as you glance through this edition of the Spectrum. That would be a great capstone to my efforts to make this year come alive for you through the pictures and words within these covers. The struggle to finish this book will indeed be forgotten by the staff members if this book inspires happy memories for each of you in future years. We owe you our thanks, for we could not have created this book without your faces and actions to inspire us.

Unfortunately, this book is not foolproof. We apologize for any errors or misprints found within.

I want to personally thank all the people whose support made this book a reality:

Elaine and Dianne — for without their help this book would not have even been

Christi Beavers, Dawn Mesmer and Liz — for their dedication to helping in a time of need

Alan — for the confidence he placed in me

Dan Beebe — for being the person who took the other half of the pictures

Mr. Holden — for his help with his camera

The Chronicle photographers — for the use of their pictures

And, of course, to the entire Spectrum staff.

Ann E. Randall
